Dear Mr. Griffey:

This is in further response to your November 16, 2010 Freedom of Information Act request (our case number NW 34934) for access to records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Administration. Specifically, you requested Federal Bureau of Investigation Seattle Field Office case file 157-SE-860. This file is part of Record Group 65, Records of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Classification 157 (Civil Unrest) Field Office Case Files: Seattle; boxes 86-87; location 230/80/10/05.

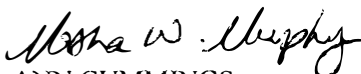

We have completed our review of this case file, totaling 1,324 pages. We have determined that 867 pages may be released in full. An additional 428 pages may be released with portions redacted pursuant to exemptions (b)(3), (b)(6), (b)(7)(C), and (b)(7)(D) of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552). Exemption (b)(3) exempts the release of information prohibited from release by another statute; the statute in this case is 18 USC 2510-2520 Title III (Wiretaps). Exemption (b)(6) exempts the release of information that could cause an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption (b)(7)(C) exempts the release of personal information in law enforcement records. Exemption (b)(7)(D) exempts the release of information that could reveal the identity of a confidential law enforcement informant. Finally, 29 pages have been referred to another agency for national security declassification review.

The released materials are available for your review at the National Archives in College Park, MD. Please contact the Special Access and FOIA Staff at least 48 hours in advance of your visit to arrange to have the records available upon your arrival. If instead you wish to receive copies of this material, at a cost of .75 cents per page, we will be glad to send you a reproduction price quote.
